In response you will receive a written confirmation of your booking, including detailed information on the options available for travelling to the school and the designated meeting point. On receipt of confirmation a payment of 10 % of the total price of the course should be paid into the account indicated within two weeks. This deposit will never exceed 250 euros. The balance is then paid to the school in Spain / Latin America within the first week of arrival. In the case of a course lasting longer than 4 weeks, the outstanding balance for those first four weeks is also to be paid during the first week, however payments for any subsequent weeks may be made separately.

Cancellation

We must be notified of any cancellation in writing (this includes e-mail) from the person who registered for the course in question. If the notification is received more than four weeks prior to the start of the course, a small handling fee of 15 euros will be charged. If the notification is received less than four weeks before the course commences, the entire deposit will be retained. You have the right to reclaim the deposit if you can provide proof that the language academy in question has incurred no financial losses on your behalf.

Liability

In the unlikely event that we do not fulfill our promise and fail to provide the services agreed upon, we are liable to refund up to three times the sum of the course costs. We cannot be held liable/accept responsibility for any bodily injury or illness experienced during your stay.
