

Learning Spanish with the Academia Atlántika via Skype

To ensure that you stay at the level of Spanish you have already reached and continue to extend your command of the language, we offer you the chance of booking an online course with us. You can continue to learn with the teacher of your choice independently of time and place – e.g. in your own home or at your place of work, during a break, or while travelling.

Many previous students at our school make use of this possibility and are very enthusiastic about the additional opportunity to continue learning Spanish.

Lessons are always on a one-to-one basis. A lesson lasts at least 45 minutes, but can be longer. You can decide yourself how many lessons per week you would like to have. We recommend at least one lesson per week, but the choice is entirely yours.

You can decide with your teacher what times and dates suit you best. Of course you are also free to choose lesson topics yourself.

To give you a chance to try out online learning we are offering a 30-minute trial lesson at the introductory price of 10 Euros. You can book this very easily by phoning our Hamburg office (Tel. +49 40 47 75 87) or by e mail. (spansich@atlantika.net)

Why learn Spanish online?

This way of learning enables you to learn independently of time and place – e.g. in your own home or at your place of work, during a break, or while travelling. On your computer screen you meet a highly-qualified teacher. All our teachers are native speakers, have obtained a university degree and have a wealth of experience in teaching Spanish as a foreign language. In addition they are practised at working with this medium. The online course is dynamic, flexible and effective – and you will enjoy learning in this new way!

Lessons are always on a one-to-one basis. Primarily you will be training your listening and speaking skills. A Skype lesson reproduces all the advantages of a live lesson. The computer screen serves as a virtual whiteboard, the chat window can be used for text correction and a variety of tools and our wide range of learning activities help to make lessons enjoyable and interactive.

If you are unable to travel to a Spanish-speaking country to take part in a course, or would simply like to stay in practice and extend your knowledge of the language, then Skype is just the right opportunity for you!

All you need to continue learning Spanish is a computer with internet access, a microphone and headset and a free account with Skype.

What do we offer?

All levels from Beginners to Advanced (including courses for Absolute Beginners with no previous knowledge of the language).

You choose your course contents – a strong emphasis on grammar and vocabulary, or a conversation-type course where oral skills are at the forefront; preparation for the DELE or other language examinations; Spanish for special purposes (e.g. business, tourism); preparation for a job application; lessons for children.

You can book all the courses via Skype which we also offer at our school in Conil de la Frontera – listening comprehension, reading comprehension, grammar and vocabulary, oral and written communication skills, pronunciation practice.

You name it and we will plan a curriculum to suit your needs!
